Press Release

eVISO STRENGTHENS THE FINANCE FUNCTION WITH THE APPOINTMENT OF THE CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Saluzzo (CN), 23 September 2026 – eVISO S.p.A. (ticker: EVISO) – a technology company, listed on the EGM – announces the appointment, to strengthen the Finance function, of the Chief Financial Officer in the person of Andrea Cesare Mapelli.

The appointment responds to the need to align planning, control and reporting capabilities with the greater scale and complexity achieved by the organization, also in view of the adoption of the IFRS international accounting standards and the preparation of the first consolidated financial statements. This evolution also reflects the growing centrality of financial planning in support of organic, international and external growth.

A graduate in Banking and Economic Sciences from Università Cattolica S.C. with an MBA from SDA Bocconi, Andrea Cesare Mapelli has more than 25 years of experience in administration, finance, planning and control, gained at companies including Snam, Omis Group and Brenntag, across the energy, manufacturing and chemical sectors, and has taken part in M&A projects, debt refinancing and operating cost efficiency initiatives.

As of the date of this press release, to the Company's knowledge, Mapelli's shareholding in eVISO shares is equal to zero.

Lucia Fracassi, CEO of eVISO, commented: "With the appointment of Andrea Cesare Mapelli as Chief Financial Officer, eVISO strengthens an area that requires structure, rigor and vision, in line with an evolution of the managerial structure that keeps pace with business growth, raising the level of planning and risk oversight. His experience gained in complex industrial contexts offers solid guidance for the Company's growth path. It is a step that accompanies the Company towards its first consolidated financial statements and towards the ambitious growth projects of 2026".
